NEW COUNTY OFFICIALS

Went Into Office Today—
Courthouse Complexion
Makes a Change.

Cigars and Apples are Passed
Around—New Officers Have Work Well in Hand.

The official complexion of Rush county was considerably changed today, when the new county officers who were recently elected, took their places and assumed the reins of the county government.

Cigars and apples were there in plenty and were passed around with a free hand. Each person who entered any of the offices received a treat and the new men were showered with congratulations and good wishes. The new men were instructed in their work by their predecessors and deputies and at once settled down to the work in a businesslike manner.

Those who today assumed the reins of government were as follows: Albert Winship became auditor, succeeding Owen L. Carr; John Blackledge succeeded himself as treasurer; Charles Kelso succeeded W. L. Thompson as county commissioner for the southern district; Ora Herkless succeeded himself as surveyor; Elmer Bassett became prosecuting attorney, taking the place of Charles Hack, and H. E. Guffin became Rush county's representative, succeeding Judge Will Sparks.

Miss Bohannon will continue as deputy auditor; Alvan Moor as deputy treasurer, and Carl V. Nipp became deputy prosecutor. Jabez Smith took up his duties as janitor of the courthouse for another year and George Conrad began another year as engineer at the court house heating plant.

All new township trustees took their places also.

WEDDING WAS KEPT SECRET

Young People in Noble Township Married in October.

Mr. Will Stevens, son of Riley Stevens, of Noble township, and Miss Edna Kingery were secretly married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davison, where Miss Kingery has made her home the past year, on Wednesday, October 12th, 1904, at 8 p. m. Rev. Frank Thomas of Little Flatrock officiating. They immediately left for a visit with Mrs. Stevens' parents at Blooming Grove. They will make their home in Rush county.

MANY DOCTORS IN THE FAMILY.

The Van Osdol family of which Dr. D. D. Van Osdol, of this city, is a member, counts among its members more doctors than any other family in this part of Indiana. Dr. O. L. Van Osdol has two sons, Dr. Ernest F. Van Osdol, of Aurora, and Dr. Clyde Van Osdol, of Milan. The late Dr. J. W. Van Osdol had three sons—Dr. Dawson Van Osdol, of Rushville; Dr. Loree Van Osdol, of Washington; and Dr. Wilford Van Osdol, of Mitchell. Dr. J. W. Van Osdol's only daughter married R. J. F. Coffield, of Lawrenceburg. Drs. O. L. and J. W. Van Osdol have a nephew, Dr. Harry Van Osdol, of Louisville, Ky. Dr. Clyde Van Osdol, of Milan, last Thursday was married to Dr. Florence Olmsted, of Versailles, who now become the ninth Dr. Van Osdol.

THEIR FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peters Entertained a Large Number of Guests Saturday Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peters celebrated their wooden wedding anniversary Saturday afternoon and evening, December 31, at their home on West Eighth street. About one hundred guests were present.

Those from out of town were C. V. Conoway, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. George Stanley and little daughter, Mildred, of Liberty, Indiana.

The decorations, in white and green, were elaborate and beautiful. The east room was altogether in green.

A part of the decoration of one wall was the date 1904 made in large figures of cedar rope. The west room was in white and green. Cedar rope was draped from the chandelier to the corners of the room. The curtains were tastefully decorated with sprays of smilax. In one corner was a large bank of holly, on which rested a huge wedding bell made of white carnations and smilax. The dining room was also decorated in green and white, white roses and carnations being used.

Those who assisted the hostess in receiving were Mrs. Conoway, Mrs. George Stanley, Mrs. Will Feudner, Mrs. Leven Wallace, Mrs. Claude Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Thomas Madden, Mrs. Charles Brown and Mrs. Lon Kennedy. Misses Lydia Mauzy, Bertha Megee, Georgia Wyatt, Nellie Bebout and Maymie Kemp assisted in the dining room. The hostess presented each of these with her photograph made into a calendar. At 6:30 they were entertained with a three course dinner.

In the afternoon the guests were formally received from two until four and from four until six. A one course luncheon was served. The souvenirs were small wedding bells tied with green and white ribbon.

In the evening the entertainment was informal, the guests being received from eight until twelve. Cream and cake was served with coffee and the souvenirs again consisted of small wedding bells.

Many elegant gifts were received by the hostess. Among them were eighteen Haviland dinner plates, six cut-glass tumblers, a cut glass jelly dish, a piece of Mexican drawn work, an Indian stool, seven pictures, a pedestal and a burnt wood floor candelabra. The gifts were beautiful and much appreciated by the hostess, but not more so than was the entertainment which was immensely enjoyed by all present.

On Thursday night the meeting will be in the church and the subject will be "Missions, Home and Foreign."

Friends will be made welcome at any of these meetings.

HEALTH BOARD

The county commissioners court convened this morning, but did nothing of importance beyond the recognizing of the county Board of Health. Commissioner Kelso was appointed president of the board and Dr. Lot Green is the new secretary.

Census figures just published show that the population of France last year was 39,119,095, an increase of only 157,150 in two years.

THE REPORTS ARE BUT LIES

That is what Mrs. Chadwick Tells Her Husband in Jail.

Dr. Chadwick Was Able to Give Bail for His Appearance to Answer Charges.

Cleveland, Jan. 2.—Sheriff Barry and Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick arrived here Sunday from New York. Taking a carriage at the Union station, they were driven at once to the county jail, where a bail bond for $10,000 was furnished for Dr. Chadwick's appearance in criminal court next Tuesday, when he will be given a preliminary hearing. The bail bond was signed by Virgil P. Kline, counsel for Dr. Chadwick, and also by J. P. Dawley, counsel for Mrs. Chadwick. As soon as the formalities in connection with the bond were completed Dr. Chadwick was admitted to the women's department of the jail, where he held a long conference with his wife.

The meeting between the two was pathetic in the extreme. Mrs. Chadwick arose when she heard the steps in corridor and fell in her husband's arms when she recognized him. Both broke down and wept convulsively for several minutes while clinging to each other, the sheriff attempting meanwhile to console them.

In that time all troubles that have been hanging over the family like a loadstone were lost in the joy of the meeting and the thought of the mutual sorrow. There was no artificiality about the scene. Genuine grief, genuine joy intermingled. Real tears were shed and even the sheriff, hardened as he must be by continued contact with the people in every form of distress, was himself deeply affected. Little by little the first shock grew less severe and the two sat down for a talk that continued for an hour and a half. There were pleadings and partial responses when the more serious predicament of husband and wife was at length appreciated.

Dr. Chadwick has lost his all in the operations of his wife and the large independent fortune of his only child has been swept away. Sufficient reason, it would seem, for some show of hardness on his part. Mrs. Chadwick tried to imbue him with the thought of her innocence of any wrongdoing. His only response to these pleas was "I hope so."

The troubles into which both have been plunged were thoroughly discussed. The wife told the story interspersed by violent fits of weeping, in which at times Dr. Chadwick joined. There were no apparent evasions, but there was a constant cry of "Trust me, trust me," on the part of the woman.

"Don't believe these stories which the newspapers have been printing about me," she said. "They are all lies; every one of them. I have done nothing wrong. Believe me; trust me; everything will come out all right in the end and it will be seen that I have been guilty of none of these things the public charge me with. Don't think I deceive you; I will tell you the truth and I tell you that all these reports are lies—lies."

"I can only hope so," was the husband's response.

BURNED TO THE GROUND

On last Saturday evening the fine farm residence of Mat. Conner, situated about one mile south of Connersville, was burned to the ground with most of its contents. The origin of the fire is unknown, but the loss is quite well covered by insurance. Mr. Conner is a business man of Connersville and a son of David Conner, of near Little Flatrock church. The house was occupied by the son of Mat. Conner.

The Alhambra is in danger of collapse. Its guardian, the architect Contreras, estimates that $300,000 will be needed to preserve it, but it is doubtful if the Spanish government can afford to give that sum.

NEW YEARS QUIET

Beyond the ringing of the church bells Saturday night at 12 o'clock and the false alarm which called out the fire department in this city, there was but little that gave notice of the approach of the new year, upon which we now enter. A large number of people from out of town spent Sunday with relatives and friends in the city. Saturday night and all day Sunday was quiet. The police had but little trouble in handling what few "drunks" appeared upon the streets and there was no trouble of any kind. The stores did not close today. The banks, however, were closed all day and the postoffice closed at 10 a. m. for the remainder of the day.

TRACTION PARTY

Charles L. Henry Entertains Citizens With Ride On New Traction Car.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Charles L. Henry, president of the I. & C. and the traction officials, a party of invited guests, composed of the city and county officials and ex-officials, the city's physicians, bankers, ministers, newspaper men and stockholders in the company and their wives, was treated to a ride Saturday evening on the new traction car.

The party assembled at the traction office, corner Third and Morgan streets at 4 o'clock and each guest was presented to Mr. Henry by Will M. Frazee upon entering the car.

It being the first time that the car was ever loaded to its fullest capacity the trip was made under the personal supervision of Mr. Skipton, the road's superintendent of motive power. The car, however, journeyed to the western limit of the city and back without causing the slightest trouble.

The gentlemen in the party were treated to cigars and enjoyed the trip hugely. In fact, all present appreciated the ride and regard themselves deeply indebted to Mr. Henry for his kind invitation and courteous treatment.

Those who were invited to the ride were: Mayor Frank J. Hall, Ex-Mayor John M. Stevens and wife; Councilmen O. M. Dale and wife, George T. Caldwell and wife, O. M. Smith and wife, O. C. Brann and wife, J. E. Meredith and wife and Mark Purcell; Ex-Councilmen, Ben. L. McFarlan and wife, R. E. Wilson and wife, and J. W. Davis and wife; City Clerk Harry Lakin and wife; Ex-city Clerk John Rutledge; City Treasurer, M. V. Spivy and wife; County Commissioner, Willard Amos and wife; County Auditor Albert L. Winship and wife; Ex-County Auditor O. L. Carr and wife; County Treasurer John C. Blackledge and wife; County Clerk W. A. Posey and wife; Sheriff Bainbridge and wife; Sheriff-elect W. L. H. Rowan; Citizens, Charles F. Edgerton and wife, Congressman James E. Watson and wife, E. B. Thomas and wife, Miss Maria Canley, Homer Powell and wife, John Beale and wife, of Indianapolis, George W. Campbell, Michael Gordon, and Mrs. Ora Wilson and daughter Marian; Physicians, Dr. J. C. Sexton and wife, and Dr. W. C. Smith and wife; Stockholders Claude Cambern and wife and Will M. Frazee and wife.

There are four times as many words in the English language as in the French.

An engineer declares that 50,000 people now do work with the aid of machinery which needed 16,000,000 persons to do a few years ago.

ARE READY TO GIVE UP

Gen. Nogi. Has Received a Letter From Stoessel Relating to Surrender.

Ceasless Storm of Shot and Shell Has Placed Japs in a Commanding Position.

Tokio, Jan. 2.—General Nogi reports that he has received a letter from General Stoessel relating to the surrender of Port Arthur.

Tokio, Jan. 2.—Japanese stormed and captured Wan Tai yesterday.

Headquarters of the Third Japanese Army, via Fusan, Jan. 2.—The Russians are preparing to evacuate their entire position east of Port Arthur.

Chee Foo, Jan. 2.—Four Russian torpedo boat destroyers, the Skory, Stralni, Vlastni and Serdity, accompanied by a large launch, arrived here this morning from Port Arthur. A bundle of dispatches was sent ashore from one of the destroyers. The captain of the Stralni says that they left Port Arthur because it had been impossible for ships to live in the harbor since the Japanese captured 203-Meter hill. For the past five days the Japanese are reported to have been ceaselessly storming Port Arthur on all sides.

Tokio, Jan. 2.—Advices received from Port Arthur are summarized as follows: The Port Arthur army reports that as prearranged, they blew up the parapet of Shungshu fort at 10 a. m. Saturday, whereupon they assaulted and securely occupied the whole fort at 11 a. m. A part of the enemy fled toward the heights south of the fort, while the other part was buried in the earth as a result of the explosion.

When the earth was removed two officers and 160 Russian soldiers were picked out and made prisoners. They stated that there were still 160 Russians interred by the explosion. The trophies, which consist of field and machine guns, etc., are still under investigation.

On Saturday evening our detachment facing the east fort of the Panlung blew up a part of the old enclosure of the fort. The central corps, driving the enemy before them, occupied "H" fort at 7 a. m. on Jan. 1, and then captured the new fort of Panlung. Thus the whole line of the Panlung and "H" forts was brought under our occupation. The right wing commenced a bombardment at 8 a. m. and effectively occupied the heights south of Sanyanztau, a village, despite the stubborn resistance of the enemy.

It is reported that the Japanese are following up their successes as an aftermath of the capture of Rihlung and Runshu mountains. They have captured the observation ridge behind Shungshu mountain, slight resistance being shown by the Russians. It is reported that the losses of the assaulting party on the attack on Shungshu mountain were small.

Every indication points to a material weakening of the defensive power of the garrison at Port Arthur. The Japanese now hold forts guarding the entire western half of the eastern fort ridge.

News of the continuance of Japanese successes at Port Arthur is received with elation in Tokio. It is known that the Japanese losses were comparatively light. It is believed here that the Russian garrison is finally reaching its limits of strength, endurance and numbers.

FATALLY SCALDED.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 2.—While pulling a toy wagon in his mother's kitchen, little Beard Finn met his death. Mrs. Finn had set a kettle full of boiling water on the floor, and the child, not seeing the vessel, walked up to it backward and sat down squarely in the water. With one piercing scream the child fainted. His cry attracted the mother, who came immediately and burned her hands severely in lifting him from the kettle. He was terribly scalded and never recovered consciousness.

DID NOT CATCH HIM

A very interesting and amusing occurrence happened near Glenwood on Saturday, in which a prominent I. & C. traction official of this city figured. It would seem that the official was trying to secure right-of-way for the I. & C., and encountered Trustee Wiles, of Fairview township, the parties being on opposite sides of a high fence. The story goes that Wiles, devious the intention of the said I. & C. man to make him a tender of cash for right-of-way through his property, and not wanting to have such tender made, began to run, followed on the other side of the fence by the official. Very rapid time was made by both parties who showed their ability to enter as amateur champions in the sprinting field, but Trustee Wiles took first honors and out-ran his pursuer and so escaped the tender of cash for the right-of-way.

Those who witnessed the race say it was one of the most laughable affairs that has occurred near Glenwood in a long time.

CONOVER-AMOS

Two Well Known Rushville Young People Wedded Last June.

After an attempt to keep the marriage a secret, which was for a time quite successful, the story leaked out today that Mr. Robert Conover, the gentlemanly grocery clerk at Riley & Kelley's store and Miss May Amos, a well known young lady of this city were united in marriage at 9 o'clock on the evening of June 26th, 1904, by Rev. Walter S. Campbell. The wedding took place at Rev. Campbell's former home on West Seventh street. Until today the wedding had been kept an absolute secret, but a desire to tell all, led to the confession.

Mrs. Conover is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Amos, of North Perkins street, and is one of Rushville's highly respected young ladies. She is a milliner at John B. Winship's store. Mr. Conover is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Conover, of East Tenth street and is a popular young man. Mr. and Mrs. Conover will go to housekeeping in the spring, but for the present will retain their positions at the stores.

TRACTION CAR DRAWS CROWD

Many People Ride in the City On Sunday and Monday.

The I. & C. is now running a car through this city every two hours. The car crosses the city limits on the bridge over the mill race and at the Posey road.

Many people are riding in the car both for convenience and the novelty of the thing. On Sunday at every trip to the western city limits and back the car was crowded. From sixty to seventy people were hauled at each time and it is estimated that 500 people rode on the car on Sunday.

The pace has continued almost at the same rate today (Monday) and large crowds continue to gather along the streets to watch its progress. The car was altogether the center of attraction Sunday and hundreds of people flocked to the car barns to see it and watch its work.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY

"Yes, I once drank coffee at the rate of nine cups a day," said a prominent merchant in this city this afternoon "and I became so thin and weak that I was compelled to cease using it. Since that time I have regained my health and now feel like a two-year-old. Yes, coffee will do you if you use it like I did."

RUSHVILLE IND. JAN. 2, 1904

The Legislature will convene next
Thursday morning.

David B. Hill has retired from politics after forty years uninterrupted participation in the Democratic councils in New York State and in the nation. Mr. Hill is going to practice law.

There will be two members of the Indiana State Senate named Moore. One is E. E. Moore, of Connorsville, elected last November, and the other is T. T. Moore, of Greencastle, who was a member of the House in 1895.

This week will witness the close of the administration of Winfield T. Durbin as governor. It is said that he has not definitely determined on his plans after he quits office, but it is intimated by his close friends that he may return to his home at Anderson to look after his business interests.

It was quite apparent to those who took notice, that the L. & C. Traction company was making strenuous efforts to comply with the terms of their franchise, requiring them to run cars through the city every two hours by January 1st. Sunday the company inaugurated a regular service, running a car every two hours from the middle of the race—the eastern city limits—to the Dagler farm—the western city limits. Meanwhile the petition of the company to have further time granted them, is receiving due and careful consideration by the members of the city council.

POLITICAL UNEAGINESS

Has the Plum Tree Yielded All It Will for Indiana?

Indianapolis, Jan. 2.—There is much speculation among the Republican leaders as to what effect the appointment of the Hon. John L. Griffiths, of this city, as consul-general to Berlin, will have on their efforts to secure other federal positions for the faithful sons who are begging for them. About fifty Hoosier Republicans have applied for places in the consular service, but fear is now expressed that the president will consider the reward of Griffiths as sufficient for the whole party in the state this time. While this may not be the case there is a tendency to believe that it will be and it has caused considerable uneasiness. Thos. Carter, of this city, secretary of the state printing board, is a candidate for public printer and has good endorsement, but his friends are afraid that the appointment of Mr. Griffiths will destroy his chances.

The legislature will be convened Thursday morning at ten o'clock. There will be no "hub-dubbery" about the event and the session will not continue longer than is required for the reading of the governor's message, as it is presumed that he will present it the first day. There will probably be a brief session Friday morning at which adjournment will be taken till Monday—inauguration day. It is not the custom to do much work the first few days of the session. Governor Durbin has about completed his message and it will probably be handed to the printer tomorrow morning. It is understood that it is a very voluminous document. Secretary of State Storms will call the House to order and preside till the body is regularly organized. Lieutenant-Governor Gilbert will call the Senate to order and preside till Hugh T. Miller is inaugurated next Monday. One of the judges of the supreme court will probably administer the oath of office to the new members.

Although this was a holiday with most of the state officials there was considerable doing around the haunts of the politicians. A number of members of the legislature arrived but the majority will come tomorrow night and Wednesday. Neither side will caucus till Wednesday night. Sidney Cantwell, of Hartford City, who will be speaker of the House, opened headquarters today at the Hotel English and was a very busy man. He is completing his committees as rapidly as possible, but will not make any announcements till the first of next week. Cantwell has been very careful to look into the fitness of the members for the various places at his disposal. The same course has been pursued by Hugh T. Miller, lieutenant governor-elect. He will announce his committees a week from today. The members who were here today are merely getting acquainted and arranging for homes for the session.

Senator Albert J. Beveridge left early yesterday morning for Washington to be there for the opening of Congress, but he will probably return to Indianapolis by the 17th, when he is to be re-elected for a term of six years. Just six years ago at this time he was plain Albert J. Beveridge and engaged in a strenuous fight for the position he now holds. J. Frank Hanly, who is about to be inaugurated governor, was leader of that senatorial race. During the six years that have passed since then both have fared well at the hands of their party in Indiana. Senator Beveridge left without announcing whom he will recommend for postmaster of Indianapolis, but the politicians generally believe that H. W. Bennett, treasurer of the Republican state committee, will get the plum.

A WONDERFUL WORK

American Evangelists Stirring Men's Hearts in England.

Liverpool, Jan. 2.—The Rev. Reuben A. Torrey and Charles M. Alexander, the Chicago evangelists, yesterday opened the last three weeks of their revival crusade here with stirring scenes. A unique observance of New Year's day was the broadcast distribution throughout the city by personal delivery to passers by, in private letter boxes, in saloons, etc., of 250,000 white cards inscribed simply in glaring red type: "Get right with God."

Wholesale conversions have resulted from this plan and crowds made public confessions at last night's meeting at Tournament hall. Four thousand converts already have inscribed their names, and it is expected that 6,000 will have made confession before the evangelists go to London for a five-months' crusade on a larger scale than any similar campaign that has been witnessed by the present generation.

Tragedy at Bedford.

Bedford, Ind., Jan. 2.—Mace Hitchcock, a former saloon keeper of this city, shot and perhaps fatally wounded George W. House, also a saloon keeper. It is claimed that House was tormenting Hitchcock, who is a cripple, and the latter, after securing a revolver, deliberately shot his adversary.

DESIGNS OF CONGRESS

Some of the Bits of Early Legislation
Under Consideration.

Washington, Jan. 2.—It is expected that not more than three days of the present week will be devoted to legislation in the senate. Congress recesses after the holiday recess on Wednesday, and the present intention is that the senate adjourn on Friday until Monday. It is generally understood that the statehood bill, having the sanction of the steering committee, will be made the unfinished business. There are no appropriation bills ready for consideration in the senate, although the legislative, executive and judicial bill has been before the committee during the recess and will be completed during the week.

The Hill currency bill will come up Wednesday in the house according to the present program and possibly a vote may be reached upon it Thursday. Friday under the rules will be devoted to war claims and there is enough business on the calendar to take up a whole day. The appropriations committee have the fortifications appropriation bill about ready to report and it may be considered in the house on Saturday. The committees having in charge the different appropriation bills have been pushing them with considerable vigor and this week will see them well advanced. Especial effort is being made to get the supply bills over to the senate at an early date.

More Cotton Burned.

Ocala, Fla., Jan. 2.—In the presence of about 300 farmers and merchants of this place, a bale of cotton was thrown off a wagon on one of the main streets of the town and set on fire. As it burned planters and merchants gathered around the fire and held an informal indignation meeting in contempt of the Wall street cotton speculation. The people here have agreed to burn a bale at every decline in the price of cotton.

Carnegie's Gift to Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 2.—Andrew Carnegie has made an offer of $263,000 for the rebuilding of the Maryland Institute of this city, which was destroyed by fire last February, if the city of Baltimore will provide a site for the institution.

Pope Pius Relents.

Rome, Jan. 2.—For the first time in the history of United Italy clerical aldermen were among the officials who went to the quinal Sunday to extend New Year's greetings to King Victor Emmanuel. It is reported that the clerical aldermen had consulted Pope Pius X. as to their attending the king's reception and were advised that they should do their duty as loyal citizens.

PLAN OF ACTION

Two Sets of Election Returns Will Be Presented in Colorado.

Denver, Col., Jan. 2.—Announcement is made from Republican sources that when the general assembly convenes in joint session to canvass the vote for state officers as required by the constitution, two sets of returns will be presented from the Denver election commission. The majority report will show a plurality of about 4,000 for Alva Adams, the Democratic candidate for governor, while the minority report will set forth extensive election frauds and declare that Governor Peabody carried this county by a plurality sufficient to overcome Adams' plurality of about 6,000 in the remainder of the state. No particulars concerning this minority report have yet been made public. It however is confidently asserted by the Republican leaders that the minority report from Denver will be supported by the full Republican vote in the legislature, that the certificate of election will be awarded to Governor Peabody and that he will be inaugurated as governor for a second term on Jan. 10, the date set by the constitution. This line of action, according to the view of the Republicans, will make it necessary for Adams to bring a contest if he should still care to assert any claim to the governorship.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Senator Mitchell and Representative Blinger Herrmann have been indicted for complicity in the land frauds against the government. Secretary Hitchcock received the news of the indictment in a private message from Inspector

SENATOR JOHN H. MITCHELL OF OREGON.

Greene, who has been in charge of the land frauds investigation in Oregon and who is now assisting the department of justice in gathering evidence for the pending prosecution.

The indictment of Senator Mitchell and Mr. Herrmann in no way changes the situation with respect to land frauds in Oregon or the attitude of the department of the interior on that subject, said Mr. Hitchcock. "The cases are now in the hands of the department of justice. We will simply render every assistance possible in prosecuting those whom we believe guilty."

Pattern for Lady's Dressing Sack Designed by Martha Dean

The dressing sack is one of the most important articles in a woman's wardrobe, and having once learned its use no woman will be without a few pretty ones that may be hurriedly slipped on in the early morning, or perhaps for afternoon at home, when one feels that a tight dress would be uncomfortable. In the pretty design shown here the chief characteristic is the square collar with stole ends. This charming feature gives breadth to the shoulders, and the stole effect in front overcomes that square appearance that so often makes one look "dumpy" in a dressing sack. The fullness in the front is given by plaits on the shoulder, and the back may be laid in a wattle plait or gathered. The sleeve may be in flowing or bishop style. For a simple yet pretty dressing sack this is an admirable model to follow. Not only are woolen goods and silk suitable to the mode, but it is desirable for "lady" dressing sacks. Made up in red albatross, with cream colored lace, it is very effective and stylish. Pattern No. 6013. Sizes, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.

DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING

Send 10 cents to this office, give number of this pattern, No. 6013, and state size desired. It will then be sent to you by mail postpaid. Be sure to write plainly and always give full address. Several days must be allowed for delivery of pattern.

LIFE INSURANCE.

Get Fully Acquainted With the Terms of Your Policy.

"What the average purchaser of life insurance doesn't know about the thing he is purchasing would fill a good sized book printed with very narrow margins," says an insurance expert. "For instance, I talked not long since with a man who fancied he was insured for $10,000 on the fifteen year endowment plan. That is, he thought he had to make payments for fifteen years—which was true—and that at the end of that time he could get $10,000 in cash or take a part in cash and a part in paid up insurance, which, as it turned out, was not true. The rate he was paying was so very low for what he said he was getting that I asked to see his policy, and when I looked at it I found, just as he might have found on a brief examination, that while he was insured for life, with only fifteen yearly payments, he could not get the $10,000 or any part of it for a good many years more. No insurance company in the world will permit the fooling of a patron like this if it can help it, and yet to attribute such a mistaken idea to fraudulent misrepresentation on the part of an unworthy agent would not always be fair. Many men who take insurance, and especially those who do not decide to go in until they have looked at it a long time, go in finally with a rush. They don't give the agent time to tell them what they are getting, and often don't find out for years afterward. Another thing that many insured persons do not know is that a rebate on the first payment, arranged between the insured and the agent, sometimes renders the whole transaction invalid."—Philadelphia Record.

A GOOD WIDE YAWN.

It Is a Splendid Reviver For the Whole Body.

A good, wide, open mouthed yawn is a splendid thing for the whole body. A yawn is nature's demand for rest. Some people think they only yawn because they are sleepy, but this is not so. You yawn because you are tired. You may be sleepy also, but that is not the real cause of your yawning. You are sleepy because you are tired, and you yawn because you are tired. Whenever you feel like yawning just yawn. Don't try to suppress it because you think it is impolite to yawn. Put your hand over your mouth if you want to, but let the yawn come. And if you are where you can stretch at the same time that you yawn just stretch and yawn. This is nature's way of stretching and relaxing the muscles.

Don't be afraid to open your mouth wide and yawn and stretch whenever you feel like it. Indeed, if you are very tired, but do not feel like yawning, there is nothing that will rest you so quickly as to sit on a straight back chair, and, lifting your feet from the floor, push them out in front of you as far as possible, stretch the arms, put the head back, open the mouth wide and make yourself yawn.

Those tense nerves will relax, the contracted muscles will stretch and the whole body will be rested. Do this two or three times when you are tired and see what it will do for you.

"Very well, sir," said Dr. Quack after his quarrel with the undertaker. "I'll make you sorry for this." "What are you going to do," asked the undertaker—"retire from practice?"—Exchange.

TEXAS FRUIT LANDS

Produce Early Crops Which Bring Fancy Prices.

In Texas they begin shipping berries in April, tomatoes in May, Peaches in June, bringing fancy prices up North.

The growing season is much longer than in the North—a chance to make two and three crops, reducing the expense of "getting through" the winter.

Fruit and truck lands along the Cotton Belt Route are very cheap as yet—$10 to $15 an acre unimproved. When put to orchard or truck they can be made to yield $100 to $200 per acre and more.

Besides, it's an ideal climate—no long, cold winters. Write for booklet on fruit and truck growing.
